About thirty years ago I visited Mojacar on holiday but was so enchanted with the ambiance that I decided to take a year off and come back to live there for a while, I stayed for fourteen months (money ran out) But even though I left physically my heart and head are still roaming around the magic of the pueblo. The gypsies christened me an honorary spaniard for thats what they saw in me and I must agree. I will always dream of another visit although I know things have changed considerably! \Wonderful memories will last a life time and set my passions reeling!

I visited Mojacar almost 10 years ago. It was my first Holiday abroad and I think it will always be my favourite, I have so many memories of it and I would love to come back and visit one day. It's just such a special place, the people were lovely, the weather was lovely and just the whole place was lovely!

At last I have found a web-site telling me something of how things are. I have been so distressed seeing all the terrible events of the last week. How is it now? I have been holidaying in Mojacar for 30 years and stay at the Hotel Indalo on the Playa. Is that area OK? I hear the hotel was evacuated - I do hope that everyone who works there is safe and they have not lost their homes. We are coming back again next June - sooner if we can. Mojacar - we love you!

Mojacar and the Playa 76-80. Returned often and spent many a night reminising with Gordon in the Sarten. shame that so many of the 'old school' expats are no longer around; Tony Earl, Bob from the Escalera, Tito, Frank (Burger rest) Diz Dizzly etc. Great memories, I will return son too...

Haven't been back for a few years now, but did spend every summer there for over a 25+ year period. Met by future wife at the El Cid(Lloyd & Tish), spent many a night at the La Sarten with Gordon running the watering hole, and his LaMumba's, which had me pretty tanked most nights. I was known as the Canadian Steak. The Entertainer rag and it's gossip column always had nice things to say, when they wrote about me. Sorry to hear about the fires this season! A lot of course has changed over the years, and some like it, and some don't. I cope with the changes, but at times long for the days that the Tarleton bus when bring in the Lily White Brits, and I would take my pick of the beauties who came off into the blazing sun. Thank you ladies, for life without you in it would have been not as adventuresome! 😊😂😄
